A Nasty Shock

Carly the spider lived in an old hayshed. The hayshed was on a farm in Queensland.

Carly was large and black, but she was a friendly spider. All the animals in the hayshed were her friends, except the blowflies!

One day a little girl went to visit the farm. Her name was Eva. Eva walked into the hayshed to look for eggs. Her Aunt Jan needed some to make a birthday cake for Uncle Peter. When Eva looked up she saw Carly sitting in her spiderweb.

“EEEEEEK!” she screamed. “A spider!”

Eva raced out of the hayshed into the sunshine.

Carly was very upset as she didn’t mean to frighten Eva. She could not understand why the little girl was so afraid of her. After all, a spider is much smaller than a girl!
