A Wedding at the Castle

Yesterday, Prince Charming married Cinderella in the garden of his castle. He met his beautiful bride at a ball held at the castle last month. She danced all night with the tall, handsome prince. At midnight, Cinderella ran away. As she went downstairs Cinderella lost one of her glass slippers on the stairs. Prince Charming took it around the country until he found the girl whose foot would fit the slipper. This was the girl he wanted to marry. The happy couple invited many people to their wedding. They all had a good time. Cinderella's fairy godmother was also invited.
