

UNIT 1 ANSWERS: Check your punctuation

A Biography: Professor Christopher O'Brien

AM MB BS MS FRACS

Professor Christopher O'Brien was a renowned head and neck cancer surgeon. He graduated from the University of Sydney in 1976 and went on to develop his skills in the UK and USA. On his return to Australia he joined the RPAH in NSW as a consultant.

He wrote numerous scientific papers and books on head and neck cancer and he founded the Australian and New Zealand Head and Neck Society. On Australia Day 2005 he was made a Member of the Order of Australia for his services to medicine. He appeared many times on the reality TV show RPA.

He was popular because of his enthusiasm for his profession and his positive outlook.

In 2006 he was diagnosed with a brain tumour and, after treatment and therapy, passed away in June 2009.
