

Mapping to BSBWHS510A Contribute to Implementing Emergency Procedures

Note: While this unit is not directly covered in the book, information relating to this unit can be found in the following sections. Additional information on teaching this unit can be found in the Instructor Resource Manual on Emergency Response.

Element	Performance Criteria	Relates to sections
1. Identify potential emergencies	1.1 Apply knowledge of WHS hazards and relevant standards to identify causes of potential emergencies 1.2 Seek input of stakeholders in identifying potential emergencies 1.3 Identify and liaise with appropriate specialist advisors and emergency agencies to identify causes of potential emergencies 1.4 Develop a risk register to identify potential emergencies and their causes	1.1, 1.3, 6.3, 7.1 6.3 6.3, 5.4, 8.3 6.2, 6.3
2. Identify options for initial response	2.1 Categorise major types of potential emergencies 2.2 Identify actions required to contain or limit potential emergencies 2.3 Identify actions required to limit impact on personnel, property and the environment 2.4 Identify requirements for liaison with emergency agencies 2.5 Prioritise actions to be taken during emergencies	10.4 10.4 10.4 10.3, 10.4
3. Plan initial response procedures	3.1 Identify resources available and required for immediate response 3.2 Check emergency equipment to ensure serviceability, accessibility, cleanliness and correct location 3.3 Document actions required for a range of major types of emergency, taking account of standards, current industry practice, specialist advice and input by emergency agencies 3.4 Identify training needs and appropriate providers	6.5 12.4
4. Implement initial response procedures	4.1 Document and display actions for initial response 4.2 Outline own role in emergency response 4.3 Follow appropriate procedures	10.4
5. Contribute to post-event activities	5.1 Identify and support other personnel in the second response phase 5.2 Make contributions to debriefing processes
6. Monitor emergency response and address deficiencies	6.1 Monitor responses to emergencies for efficiency and timeliness, in consultation with stakeholders and, as appropriate, specialist advisors and agencies	10.4

	6.2 Document, and promptly and appropriately report, results of monitoring to appropriate persons	10.4
	6.3 Identify areas for organisational and personal improvement and make recommendations for improvement in response to analysis of response taken	10.4